3. The long-term guidance, as agreed previously, will be in accordance with the attachment to the reference. In this regard, I am working with the Director, IC Staff to establish procedures whereby we can all review together proposed programs earlier and more fully than is presently the case. This should provide an opportunity to resolve questions at an early stage.

4. Our staffs already have worked out many of the details regarding the center's operations and they should proceed toward implementation. Should any further questions arise, I would be happy to meet with you again in order to resolve them.
